Introduction

Would you like to attract more of what you want in your business and less of what you don't want? How would you like a business breakthrough? How about just getting your business to the next level?

It can be done by speaking those things that are not, as though they were. Truly, you CAN have whatever you say.

Affirmations are verbal confessions that are used to build your faith, change your way of thinking, and catapult you into action. It's a great way to rid yourself of negative thoughts and to refocus your mind on the goal or desire at hand.

It has been scientifically proven, that faith to do anything comes by hearing something over and over. What you hear is not only heard by the conscious mind but also stored by the subconscious mind.

When you hear a television commercial repeatedly, it changes your thinking into believing that particular product or store is the right one for you. The result of you hearing this commercial repeatedly, convinces you to get up and purchase the advertised product.

The concept is the same with affirmations. When spoken repeatedly, they convince you to get up and take action. Once your belief system is changed from negative to positive, you will begin to attract the reality of your confessions into your life.

I have worked this principle over and over in my own life. Through affirmations I have attracted money, real estate, peace, health, friendships, business opportunities, and more. Is my life perfect? Absolutely not but it is certainly better and more prosperous with affirmations.

How To Get Results

Step 1: Realize that affirmations are not only spoken words but they are also words that are full of energy. Negative affirmations produce negative energy. Positive affirmations produce positive energy. The more positive affirmations that you make, the more positive energy that surrounds you. The more negative affirmations that you make, the more negative energy that surrounds you.

It's the same with your thoughts. Positive thoughts produce positive energy. Negative thoughts produce negative energy. As a man thinks, so is he. As a business woman thinks, so is she.

Step 2: Your thinking must be on the same plane with your desire. When you are surrounded with positive energy, you open the door for positive situations to present themselves to you.

Words are powerful and the power is in the repetition of your energy filled words.

Step 3: Exercise an attitude of gratitude by taking time daily to be thankful. Count your blessings...name them one by one. Spending time in thanksgiving for what you have, speeds up the process of your manifestation. It increases the charge of positive energy in your life.

Step 4: In the following, “50 Affirmations For The Successful Business Woman,” it is imperative that you choose 3-5 of these affirmations and say them as often as possible everyday. Say them with passion and feeling. A good start would be morning, noon, and night.

Often times I make my affirmations while driving from point “A” to point “B”. I make them while cleaning the house or doing yard work. It has been my personal experience that the more I repeat my affirmations, the quicker my results.
